

First Congregational Church of Fresno

and an Open and Affirming Congregation of the United Church of Christ

The church wedding or commitment ceremony is a religious rite for persons who desire to affirm their vows and celebrate the beginning of married or committed life in the hope and tradition of Christian faith. This rite is a matter of great significance, not only for the couple, but for the wider circle of family and friends.

First Congregational Church is happy to be involved in this important moment, and offers its pastoral staff and services to members and non-members alike.

Minister

Normally one of the ministers of this church will meet with the couple and officiate at weddings or commitment ceremonies here. These rites at the church are viewed as a sacred pastoral responsibility and prerogative. The close interpersonal relationships formed during preparation are, of course, a matter of confidentiality and mutual trust.

Initially at reservation time, the couple should make an appointment with the minister who will officiate. The church office will be glad to help facilitate this appointment. The proposed date may be “held” on the church calendar, but will not be considered “confirmed” until after the initial meeting between the minister and the couple. Additional appointments will be scheduled as necessary by mutual agreement.

Pipe Organ

The Casavant Pipe Organ of First Congregational Church is quite special and more complex than most. We encourage everyone to attend a Sunday morning service to see, hear, and feel the power and the beauty that the pipe organ brings to celebrations. The church organist is the contracted musician that plays for all of the ceremonies here at First Congregational Church or provides for a capable substitute in his/her absence. The use of organists requested by a couple from outside of the church is not permitted, though the use of pianists and other musicians can be used at the discretion and consultation of the Music Director/Organist. The organist works closely with the couple in selecting appropriate music for the ceremony. An appointment with the organist should be made at least six weeks before the ceremony for the purpose of planning the service music. The organist should also be consulted if vocal or instrumental music in addition to the organ is desired in the ceremony, or if arrangements for a rehearsal are necessary.

Music

Music will be discussed at the initial meeting with the minister. Good taste, the church setting and the religious character of the ceremony must be considered in selecting music while instrumentalists of various kinds as well as vocal soloists may be utilized, the church does not allow the use of taped music or soloists requiring pre-recorded soundtracks and heavy amplification.

Ceremony Coordinator

The church will provide a coordinator, who will be able to advise you about facilities and decorations and will assist in the smooth functioning of both the rehearsal and the ceremony. The coordinator will be contacted through the church office after the date has been set. The coordinator will become most active with the couple about 2 months before the ceremony.

Photography

Formal pictures may be taken in the sanctuary, chapel or courtyard before or after the ceremony. Pre-ceremony pictures must be completed and the photographer and his/her equipment removed at least thirty minutes before the scheduled beginning of the ceremony. It is advised that an hour and a half of picture-taking before the ceremony should be long enough.

Because the ceremony is a religious service of worship, it is required that no pictures be taken in the sanctuary or chapel during the ceremony. Unobtrusive photographs and video cassette recordings using available light may be taken from the balcony of the sanctuary, or from the rear of the chapel, if no guests are seated there. Floodlights and flash photography are not permitted during the ceremony. Rules & Guidelines are included and must be signed.

Video photographers are not allowed to be in view of the congregation during the service. A contract will be provided that will convey this information to your photographer or video photographer. If the guests photos are distracting, the minister may stop the ceremony. Rules & Guidelines are included and must be signed.

Receptions

The large Fellowship Hall is available for those who wish to hold a reception following the ceremony at the church. NO alcoholic beverages in any form are allowed. Please obtain information for receptions from the church office, or ask the church's coordinator for more info.

Rehearsal

The rehearsal is usually scheduled for the evening before the ceremony. It is the responsibility of the couple to have all members of the party, including the parents, present at the appointed time. Punctuality is imperative. Unless excused in advance by the organist or the minister, soloists and instrumentalists involved in the music must also be present in order to understand their role in the service.

The Sanctuary or Minturn Chapel will be reserved for a period of one hour for your rehearsal. The minister will direct the rehearsal with the assistance of the coordinator. Please give the coordinator the marriage license at the outset of the rehearsal.

Candles... Flowers and Decorations

The church's coordinator will show you what the church has to offer and help outline the placement.

Please have the florist notify the coordinator about delivery time for the flowers, if delivery arrangements are needed. Rules & Guidelines are included and must be signed.

You are invited to leave your altar flowers for use during the Sunday morning worship service of the church as a gift to God in celebration of your ceremony. Please notify the coordinator if this is intended, so that proper arrangements and recognition can be made.

Safety and insurance considerations we do not permit the use of a runner or bridal carpet in the aisle. Likewise, fire regulations prohibit live candles anywhere near the aisles or pews. Live candles will be on the altar and chancel.

Flower children/adults are not allowed to throw/drop anything.

Facilities

The church has an option available for ceremonies and receptions. The sanctuary will seat as many as 350 guests. Minturn Chapel will seat approximately 60-64 persons. The Sanctuary or Minturn Chapel will be reserved for up to 4 hours maximum for the preparations and ceremony. Fellowship Hall will accommodate up to 200 people at tables if a dinner reception is planned.

Smoking is not permitted within any of the buildings. Members of the party and guests should not bring alcoholic beverages to the church. It is also requested that no rice or bird seed be thrown or scattered on the church premises, as this becomes a safety hazard and is very difficult to clean up.
