Call to Worship (Standing and responsively)

Wade Hobson

Eternal God, in the still of the night just passed God sent God's almighty Word to pierce the world's darkness with the light of salvation.

Give to us and this earth the peace for which we long, and fill our hearts with the joy of heaven.

May this light, embodied in our worship today, shine forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns in the unity of the Holy Spirit; one God, now and forever. Amen.

Hymn

"Once In Royal David's City"

#145, pew hymnal

Christmas Day Responsive Collect (Adapted from Maya Angelou)

Wade Hobson

O God, you have created this holy day to dawn with a brightness of the True Light.

Into today's climate of fear and apprehension, Christmas enters, streaming lights of joy, ringing bells of hope and singing carols of forgiveness high up in the bright air.

The world is encouraged to come away from rancor, come the way of friendship.

It is the Glad Season. Hope is born again in the faces of children. It rides on the shoulders of our aged as they walk into their sunsets.

We, Angels and Mortals, Believers and Non-Believers, look heavenward and speak the word aloud. And we say without shyness or apology or hesitation: Peace. We look at our world and speak the word aloud.

Peace. We look at each other, then into ourselves and we say without shyness or apology or hesitation: Peace, My Brother. Peace, My Sister. Peace, My Soul.

FCCF Open and Affirming Statement

We believe that all people are sacred creations of a loving God. We affirm the diversity that exists among us. We strive to answer the call of Christ by extending his love, compassion and acceptance to everyone. In this spirit, we open our family of faith to people of every religious background, sexual orientation, family composition, physical and mental ability, race, age and gender.

As Christians, we experience God's reconciling love. In response we stand with those who suffer discrimination, isolation and alienation.

We welcome all people to participate fully in our church's life and ministry. We celebrate the variety of talents and perspectives which flow into our spiritual community, continuing to enrich us in ways we could not have predicted or envisioned.

Once in Royal David's City

145

Cecil F. Alexander, 1848; alt.

Luke 1:26-35; 2:1-7; 1 Thess. 4:13-18

1 Once in roy - al Da - vid's ci - ty stood a low - ly cat - tle shed,
 2 Je - sus came to earth from heav - en, who is God and Head of all,
 3 And through all this won - drous child - hood Je - sus hon - ored and o - beyed,
 4 Je - sus is our child - hood's pat - tern, dai - ly like us lived and grew,
 5 We at last shall meet our Sav - ior, fount of God's re - deem - ing grace,

Where a moth - er laid her ba - by in a man - ger for a bed:
 Shel - tered in a rus - tic sta - ble, cra - dled in a com - mon stall;
 Loved and watched the ten - der moth - er whose strong arms a cra - dle made.
 Je - sus, lit - tle, weak, and help - less, tears and smiles and com - fort knew.
 For that Child so dear and gen - tle reigns with - in a glo - rious place;

Mar - y was that moth - er mild, Je - sus Christ her lit - tle child.
 With the poor and meek and low - ly lived on earth our Sav - ior ho - ly.
 So, like Je - sus, we should be serv - ing God o - be - dient - ly.
 Je - sus felt the pain of sad - ness, and the joy - ous lift of glad - ness.
 Lead - ing all God's chil - dren on to the heaven where saints have gone.

Cecil Frances Alexander, wife of the bishop of Ireland, wrote a series of children's hymns commenting on the Apostles' Creed. This hymn, elaborating on the words "... born of the Virgin Mary," tells the whole life of Christ.

The Puritan era in England sent the medieval carols underground. Many were not rediscovered until the early twentieth century when Ralph Vaughan Williams, Cecil Sharp, and others began collecting them. This tune is one found by Vaughan Williams in Sussex.

What Child Is This

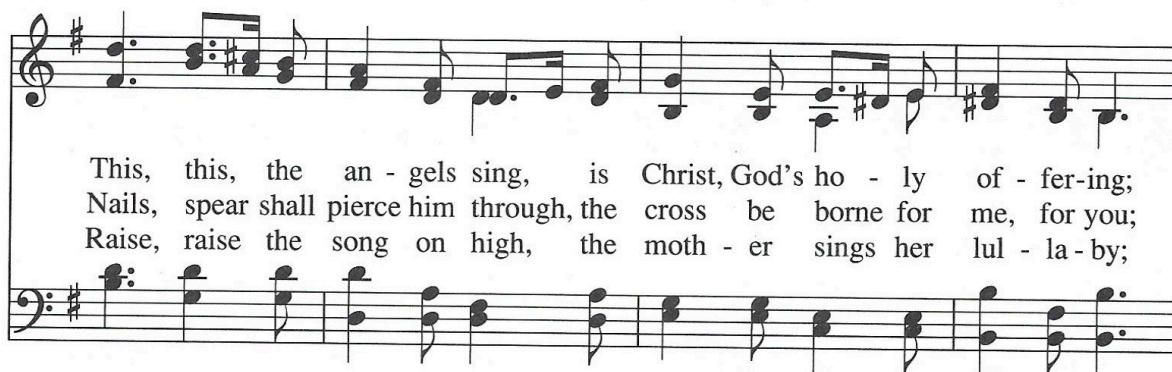

148

*William C. Dix, 1865; alt.Luke 2:7-14, 25-32; Matt. 2:11; John 1:14;
John 19:16b-18, 34*

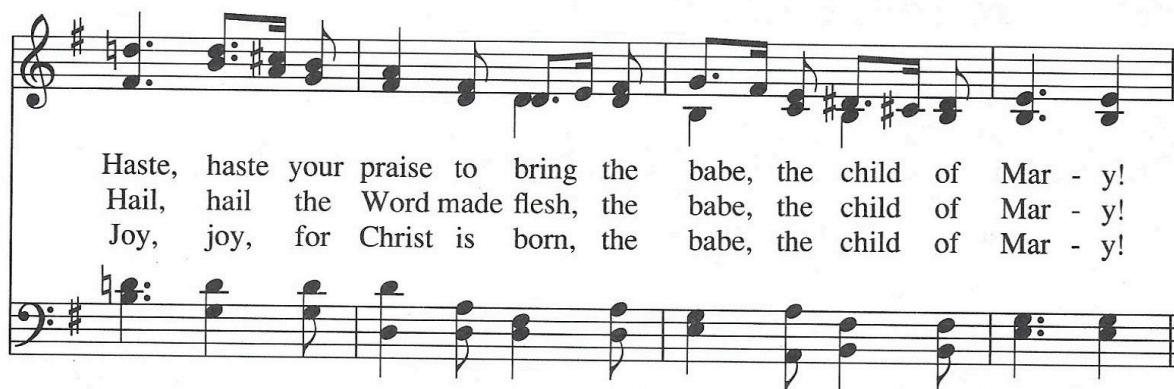

1 What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mar-y's lap is sleep - ing?
 2 Why lies the Child in man - ger bare where ox and ass are feed - ing?
 3 Bring gifts of in - cense, gold, and myrrh; come, join in ju - bi - la - tion;

Whom an - gels greet with an - thems sweet while shep - herds watch are keep - ing?
 Give heed, draw near; for sin - ners here the si - lent Word is plead - ing.
 The Ho - ly Child, though meek and mild, has come with God's sal - va - tion.

This, this, the an - gels sing, is Christ, God's ho - ly of - fer - ing;
 Nails, spear shall pierce him through, the cross be borne for me, for you;
 Raise, raise the song on high, the moth - er sings her lul - la - by;

Haste, haste your praise to bring the babe, the child of Mar - y!
 Hail, hail the Word made flesh, the babe, the child of Mar - y!
 Joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the child of Mar - y!

William Chatterton Dix, manager of an English marine insurance company, wrote a number of fine hymns. This one is always sung to the tune Greensleeves, which first appeared in England in 1580 and is mentioned in one of Shakespeare's plays.

Refrain

Come and wor-ship, come and wor-ship, wor-ship Christ, give thanks and sing.

James Montgomery, English journalist, raised a strong voice against injustice in his newspaper Sheffield Iris, in which this hymn was first printed on December 24, 1816. The tune is named for Regent Square Church in London, today a congregation of the United Reformed Church in England and Wales.
