Our Gathering

(*Congregation may stand | Responses: Liturgist/Congregation/all)

Prelude

“Ciarda” - Alberto Curci

John Morrice, violin &
Scott Horton, piano

Welcome

Call to Worship

Ken Sawatsky, liturgist

One: We gather to worship the One who crafted creation out of chaos,

All: Our cries of joy join the anthems of the universe.

One: We gather to lift our praise to our Holy God who gives us voice, .

All: We bring the songs which have echoed in our hearts all week long.

One: We gather as the children of God, our joy unbroken in God's love.

All: No matter our age or ability, we lift the songs of faith and celebrate the gift of music.

Hymn

“Sing Praise to God”

#22, pew hymnal

Opening Prayer

Ken Sawatsky, liturgist

Directing God, You raise Your hand and gently begin the concerto of creation: birds carry the melody in the morning while stars keep the beat at night. The mountains and valleys sing out in merriment while the winds and the waves carry the rhythm. All creatures join in dance and little children clap their hands with joy. Love's Composer, our songs and praises are lifted to You today. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Creator, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

*Call to the Table

Rev. Dr. Norman Broadbent

God calls us to the table to find a new way:
a new grace, a new hope, a new faith, a new hymn, a new life.
God calls; we come.
Come to the table and let go of the worn out:
worn out habits, worn out pains, worn out angers, worn out burdens.
God calls; we come.
Come to the table and receive blessing, freedom, mercy, love.
God calls; we praise.

*Hymn of Preparation

The Communion

The Consecration :: The Story :: The Sharing of Bread and Cup

(All are welcome at this table. Come down the center aisle, take a piece of bread, of which there is a gluten free option for those who would prefer. Return by a side aisle, stopping to get a cup which you then take back to your seat. Eat the bread as you receive it as a sign of God's love for you. Hold the cup until we are all invited to drink together as a sign of our oneness in Christ.)

AFTER-COMMUNION UNISON THANKSGIVING

We have eaten, we have drunk, we have tasted God's goodness which lingers on our palates as a sweet song of salvation.

May this meal we have shared here today fill us with such meaning that we taste the Love which Christ would have us remember. May we go from this table refreshed and replenished, ready to be both recipients of, and agents for, God's Grace in the world. Amen.

Sharing the Story in Word and Song

A Responsive Reading from Psalm 150

Praise the Lord!

Praise God in God's Sanctuary, Praise God in the Mighty Firmament

Praise God for mighty deeds; praise God according to God's exceeding greatness!

Praise God with trumpet sound, Praise God with lute and harp.

Praise God with timbrel and dance,

Praise God with string and pipe! Praise God with sounding cymbals!

Let everything that breathes praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord!

"To Sing Once More" - Courtney/Cook

Chancel Choir

Psalm 8 (C.E.B.)

Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name throughout the earth! You made your glory higher than heaven! From the mouths of nursing babies you have laid a strong foundation because of your foes, in order to stop vengeful enemies. When I look up at your skies, at what your fingers made— the moon and the stars that you set firmly in place— what are human beings that you think about them; what are human beings that you pay attention to them? You've made them only slightly less than divine, crowning them with glory and grandeur. You've let them rule over your handiwork, putting everything under their feet— all sheep and all cattle, the wild animals too, the birds in the sky, the fish of the ocean, everything that travels the pathways of the sea. Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name throughout the earth!

Prayers of the Church

Holy God, we praise Your name. In this morning of the first day of the week, all the various conditions are in place and the time has been given for us to offer you praise and prayer and to listen to the Word of Life in this place. We confess that we have missteps that have not been in accordance with Your will. Please guide our daily steps through your Word and let us walk as children of light. Lord,

Listen to your Children Praying,

Lord, Send your Spirit in this place.

Lord God, even at this time, there are people in the world who are facing various difficulties. There are many people who are suffering, grieving, in pain, and seeking God's salvation. Please be close to and give peace to those who lost their lives and loved ones, especially those who lost so many in the war.

Lord, Listen to your Children Praying,

Lord, Send your Spirit in this place.

Our God, today, we remember our friends who are unable to come to this service. There are friends who are getting older and cannot move as much as they would like. Give abundant comfort and encouragement to our friends who are praying in their own places. Be present to those who need you. Give each one of us the help that you deserve at the right time.

Lord, Listen to your Children Praying,

Lord, Send your Spirit in this place.

For all of our intentions, that we hold in the silence of our hearts...

Lord, Listen to your Children Praying,

Lord, Send your Spirit in this place.

Thank you, God, for the great symphony of people of this church you have gathered here today. Continue to lead this family of faith that may we always sing and live your unending song of love.

Lord, Listen to your Children Singing,

Lord, send your Spirit in this place. Amen

"When In Our Music" - K. Johnson

Scott Horton, organ

It is our tradition to be seated for the Postlude.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Handbell Selection:

“Vasylyna’s Tears” - Dan R. Edwards

Vasylyna's Tears was written in honor of the Ukrainian people...Vasylyna is a common Ukrainian woman's name - she weeps for her lost countrymen.

Choral Selections:

“To Sing Once More” - Craig Courtney, music; Jonathan Cook, lyricist

*Awake our souls to sing once more the songs that long have silent been.
From troubled nights and fearful days, our notes of praise and joy begin.
Inspired by hope, compelled by grace, we sing your everlasting praise.
Most holy God, your song we seek and trust in your unchanging ways.
With comfort, your eternal voice is music to our fainting soul.
It speaks in times of hurt and wrong, it whispers peace, it makes us whole.
Arise, his children, rise again, your God and maker now adore.
No longer silent, lift your voice, awake your soul to sing once more. Amen.*

“Lord, I stretch my hands to You” - Jay Althouse-

*Lord, I stretch my hands to You; no other help I know.
If You should leave me all alone, where, then, shall I go? Oh, Lord.
Lord, I give my soul to You; I seek Your care and love.
No other blessings do I need but those from You above.*

*Lord, I ask You: Give me faith and help me understand
And Lord when I this life shall leave, just hold me in Your hand.*

*Lord, I stretch my hands to You; no other help I know.
If You should leave me all alone, where, then, shall I go?
Oh, Lord, I stretch my hands to You.*

“Offertory” - John Ness Beck (Based on Micah 6:6-8)

*With what shall I come before the Lord,
And bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
Shall I come before Him with yearling calves?*

*Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
With ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give my first-born for my transgressions,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?*

*He has shown you, O man,
He has shown you what is good.
And what does the Lord require of you
But to do justice and to love kindness,
And to walk humbly with your God?*

The simple, formulaic nature of this song makes it especially suitable for use during the communion portion of the Lord's Supper. Because it can be learned readily and does not require reference to a printed source, it frees people to sing before and after receiving the elements.

Sound System Upgrade - A Capital Campaign

The church council approved a capital campaign to replace the aging sound system in the Sanctuary. The Ministry of Resources is asking for your help. An upgraded system with an estimated cost of $32,000, will make our live streaming more effective and will make Big Red the envy of Van Ness Blvd.

So, please reach deep and help out. A directed donation to the "Sound System Upgrade" will be greatly appreciated.

FCCF Open and Affirming Statement

We believe that all people are sacred creations of a loving God. We affirm the diversity that exists among us. We strive to answer the call of Christ by extending his love, compassion and acceptance to everyone. In this spirit, we open our family of faith to people of every religious background, sexual orientation, family composition, physical and mental ability, race, age and gender.

As Christians, we experience God's reconciling love. In response we stand with those who suffer discrimination, isolation and alienation.

We welcome all people to participate fully in our church's life and ministry. We celebrate the variety of talents and perspectives which flow into our spiritual community, continuing to enrich us in ways we could not have predicted or envisioned.
